HOLINESS SOCIETY

o Colonize at Moundaville—The Colo-nists Will Arrive To-day, Coming in on the Wheeling & Lake Kris Road.

Moundsville's population will be infeased this evening by the peaceful invasion of sixty members of the Holiness Association, who forsake Grand Junction, Mich., for the charms of the Mound City as a future place of residence. The association is communistic, and Mounds-

City as a future place of residence. The association is communistic, and Mounds-ville will be to it what the Michigan village has been for years—its headquarters and place of holding the annual camp meeting, a second Zoar.

As previously stated in the Intelligencer, the association some time ago purchased the old shoe factory in Moundsville, and they will use this three-story structure for the publication of their paper, "The Gospel Trumpet," and other purposes devoted to the cause. This paper advocates "faith cures," one of the tenets of the organization being that of healing by faith. Their annual campmeetings draw hundreds of people from all over the country, and this year's will be held during the summer at Moundsville. During this meeting the association furnishes refreshments free to main or beast, making no charge, but receiving whatever the visitor vouchsafes to give. They make no charge for anything, and their numerous missionaries live in the belief that the Lord will provide for his own.

One of the missionaries visited Moundsville last summer, and becoming smitten with the town and surroundings comunicated with the rest of the brethren, the result being the decision to move. Moundsville people were loathed to believe they were to receive the colory in their midst, but their doubts will be dispelled this evening. The religious colonists are coming in a special transferred to the Ohlo River.

There will be two passenger coaches, the fourteen remaining cars containing household belongings, etc. As most of the male members are missionaries, it is not known what occupation they will follow in Moundsville, but their doubins will sollow in Moundsville, but the colony will, nevertheless, be an interesting one.

The fact of interest to West Virginians is that In a west virginia regiment. The fact of interest to West Virginians is that the two young patriots are the twin sons of Col. George P. Sargent, the old Democratic wheel-horse, who used to harass the Republicans so much in this state, but yet of pleasant memory to everybody. Mr. Sargent is now of the Newburyport Herald, of Newburyport, Massachusetts, and these twin boys that he has given up to the service of his country are in Company A.of the Eighth Massachusetts regiment. They are Donn Davis Sargent and John Clyde Sargent, and were born at Philippi, this state, while their father was struggling to make both ends meet with a Democratic country newspaper. It is pertinent to remark that the colonel is now prosperous and fine lived to see the error of his political ways. political ways.
